

Lead Capture to Meetings in Minutes.

By combining the power of premium lead capture with the flexibility of JiffleNow, event teams are able to take prospects from the moment of data capture to booked meetings in a matter of minutes. Scan attendee badges with the Captello app. Data is instantly imported to JiffleNow where you can schedule and manage meetings and attendees, check participants into existing meetings, track meeting attendance and view meeting reports.

Enhances the attendee experience by streamlining the meeting check-in process.

Makes scheduling ad-hoc meetings onsite simple.

Increases the accuracy of attendance data and overall meeting metrics.

Reduce bottlenecks at congested registration desks - along with stress.

"Integrating JiffleNow with Captello will transform the onsite meetings experience for both your customers and staff." - Charles Conway, PMP | Head of Professional Services | JiffleNow

"The partnership between JiffleNow and Captello brings together the simplicity of lead collection with the power of JiffleNow's Meetings Automation Platform to provide a number of benefits for event professionals." - Ryan Schefke, CEO | Captello
